Per G.S.SINGHVI, CJ.

This is an appeal for setting aside order dated 19.01.2007 vide which the learned Single Judge dismissed Writ Petition No.1052 of 2007 filed by the appellants for quashing order dated 25.11.2006 passed by the Commissioner, Appeals, Andhra Pradesh.

In the pre-lunch session, one advocate appeared and made a request for adjournment by stating that the arguing counsel is not available. We declined his requrest and asked him to argue the case, but he expressed his unwillingness to do so. Notwithstanding this, the case was passed over with the hope that the arguing counsel would appear and make submissions in support of the appellants' prayer. In the post-lunch session, no one has appeared for the appellants leaving us with no option, but to presume that they are not interested in prosecuting the case.

Hence, the appeal is dismissed in default.
